BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS

Mr. Mahlon P. Hartzell, secretary; Mr. George T. Raffensperger; Mr. Paul M. Rohrbaugh; Mr. Charles B. Bender; Mr. Ralph Z. Oyler; Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver, superintendent of schools; Mr. Charles M. Sheely, vice president; Mr. Charles S. Black, president.

A black and white line drawing of a boy and a girl standing in front of a chalkboard. The boy, on the right, is wearing a plaid shirt, trousers with a lightning bolt on the pocket, and boots. He holds a book labeled 'MATH'. The girl, on the left, is wearing a dress and has her back to the viewer; her dress is covered in names. A sign above the chalkboard reads 'FACULTY'. The chalkboard has a lightning bolt drawn on it. The artist's signature 'Bream' is in the bottom right corner.

"Study Contents"*

We are grateful to our advisers, Mrs. Anna B. Heintzelman and Mr. Robert E. Sheads, for their cooperation with us in the past years. Mrs. Ridinger, adviser for our first three years, resigned last year and Mrs. Heintzelman assumed the position. All three of them helped faithfully to guide us through our various class activities and for this we are duly grateful. We hope they will be proud of us in the future and we take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for their guidance.

CASUAL COMMENTS

HARRIET ARMISTEAD—Wild about candy and swimming, dislikes chemistry, people making excuses, her name tag "Bumstead," future is a blank.

DOROTHY BELL—Loves good movies—and a certain alumnus. Homework hater, people complaining, pet saying "Yeah!" Known by her mother of pearl ring and 1944 G.H.S. class ring. Bright future ahead as a housewife.

BETSY BLOCHER—Crazy about sports, hot fudge sundaes, brown hair, color blue, dancing, shoe-strings (potatoes?). Dreads going to school on Monday, stuck-up people and waiting for slow-pokes. Pet saying "Gee." Known by her "silly laugh and fast walk," a future physical education teacher.

JEAN BREAM—Biggest admiration—opposite sex, food and sleep. Distasteful—onion eaters, also dislikes seeing a movie twice. Favorite expression "Holy Mud," recognized by her shadow, Peg, and four identification bracelets, one of our future fashion designers.

MYRNA BREAM—Favorite is food—particularly banana splits, abominates bobby socks with high heeled shoes, her popular saying "For Heaven's Sake!" Identified by her shell frames. Future secretary.

GENEVA BOWLING—Craves popcorn and chocolate frosts—dancing too, dislikes conceited and inconsiderate people, favorite saying "By Cracky," tagged by her little feet, typewriter pounder.

DONALD BUCHER—Prefers sports, short blue-eyed chicks (must be slick), another onion hater—also dislikes flirts and women drivers, often heard to say "Is that right?" Tagged by a gray '40 Chevrolet (always loaded). Future (and we quote) "Who knows?—I don't."

DELMA CARN—Enjoys sports, good jokes, ice cream and chewing gum, dislikes stuck-ups, homework and redheads, her pet saying is "No Kidding." Identification tag—a certain boy called, "Bob," another office assistant.

KEITH CLAPSADDLE—Likes traveling and sports, irritated by having to wear a hat, expresses himself by "Gee Whiz," known as "Shorty," plans to do factory work in the future.

EUGENE COLE—Crazy for ice cream and football, dislikes show-offs. "It's clear out of this world" is his pet saying, recognized as tall and lanky—also by his walk, plans to come back to school—only as a teacher this time!

CHRISTINE COOVER—Enchanted by Blue Waltz perfume and loves roller skating, can easily do without homework, nice and extreme hairdo's, uttered from her lips we quite often hear "Aw Shucks." Identification tag—"stupid expressions." Plans to be a beautician.

HELEN CURLEY—Crazy about spaghetti and dancing, doesn't appreciate show-offs or pumps with anklets, most popular saying "Give Me Strength," tagged by her shadow, Martha Keckler. Plans to be a nurse.

KATHRYN DEANER—Likes practicing the piano!!! and hiking, dislikes show-offs, girls smoking, gum crackers in movies, often heard saying "You're Not Kiddin'." Recognized by her big feet and quiet manner, plans to be a secretary in the future.

ANNA LOUISE DECKER—Loves marshmallow sundaes, and movies, bright plaid shirts, dislikes blue and green together, plaid blouses with plaid skirts, pet saying "For Heaven's Sake." Known by her red hair, plans to be a secretary in the future.

DONALD DOERSOM—Wild about flying and hunting, dislikes car cowboys, doesn't say much. Identification tag—Don, a future flyer.

JOHN DONMOYER—Crazy about cars, irritated by teachers showing favoritism, girls smoking. Pet saying (and we quote) "Not suitable." Recognized by a black 1941 Ford with spotlight, plans to be an engineer.

DALE ECKERT—Goes all out for girls with long hair, sports and vacations, his tag is a blue '36 Ford, is always saying "Roger," despises train rides and too much homework, would like to be a "Gentleman" Farmer.

BOB EIKER—Loves people who enjoy his jokes, is forever saying, "What a monster!" Couldn't miss him on that motor scooter (with "pin-ups"), loathes stuck-up women, goes in for anything mechanical.

RICHARD FELIX—Known for his friendly ways, crazy about Hershey bars, simply detests all Democrats, his pet saying, "Well, here I am," not quite sure of his future.

ELIZABETH FORD—Just wild about dancing, red shirts and Cornel Wilde. If you hear, "Oh, my heavens," that's Betty, could shoot snobbish people, could you miss her with that long hair? Here comes a secretary.

HOWARD FOX—Interested in railroads, onions to speakers who don't know when to stop. "Holy cow," that's his pet expression, is a band man who plays a horn, intends to be a railroader.

CHESTER GEIMAN—Travel tops his list of likes, thumbs down on homework and people who talk too much. "Gee whiz," that's Chester, is known for his deceiving quietness, interested in bookkeeping.

ANNA MAE HANKEY—Tears around in a '38 Ford, believes in the saying, "Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today," detests stuck-up kids, just wacky about sports, she'll be a swell secretary.

EVELYN HEAGEY—Plans to follow in her sister's footsteps and be a nurse, attracts people with those black rimmed glasses, simply adores all kinds of clothes, and oh how she hates two-faced people.

CAROL HEATWOLE—Attracts her friends by that swell disposition, the two Smalls are her constant companions, just a whiz at sports, oh! just can't stand chemistry and conceited people. "My achin' back!" yep, that's Carol.

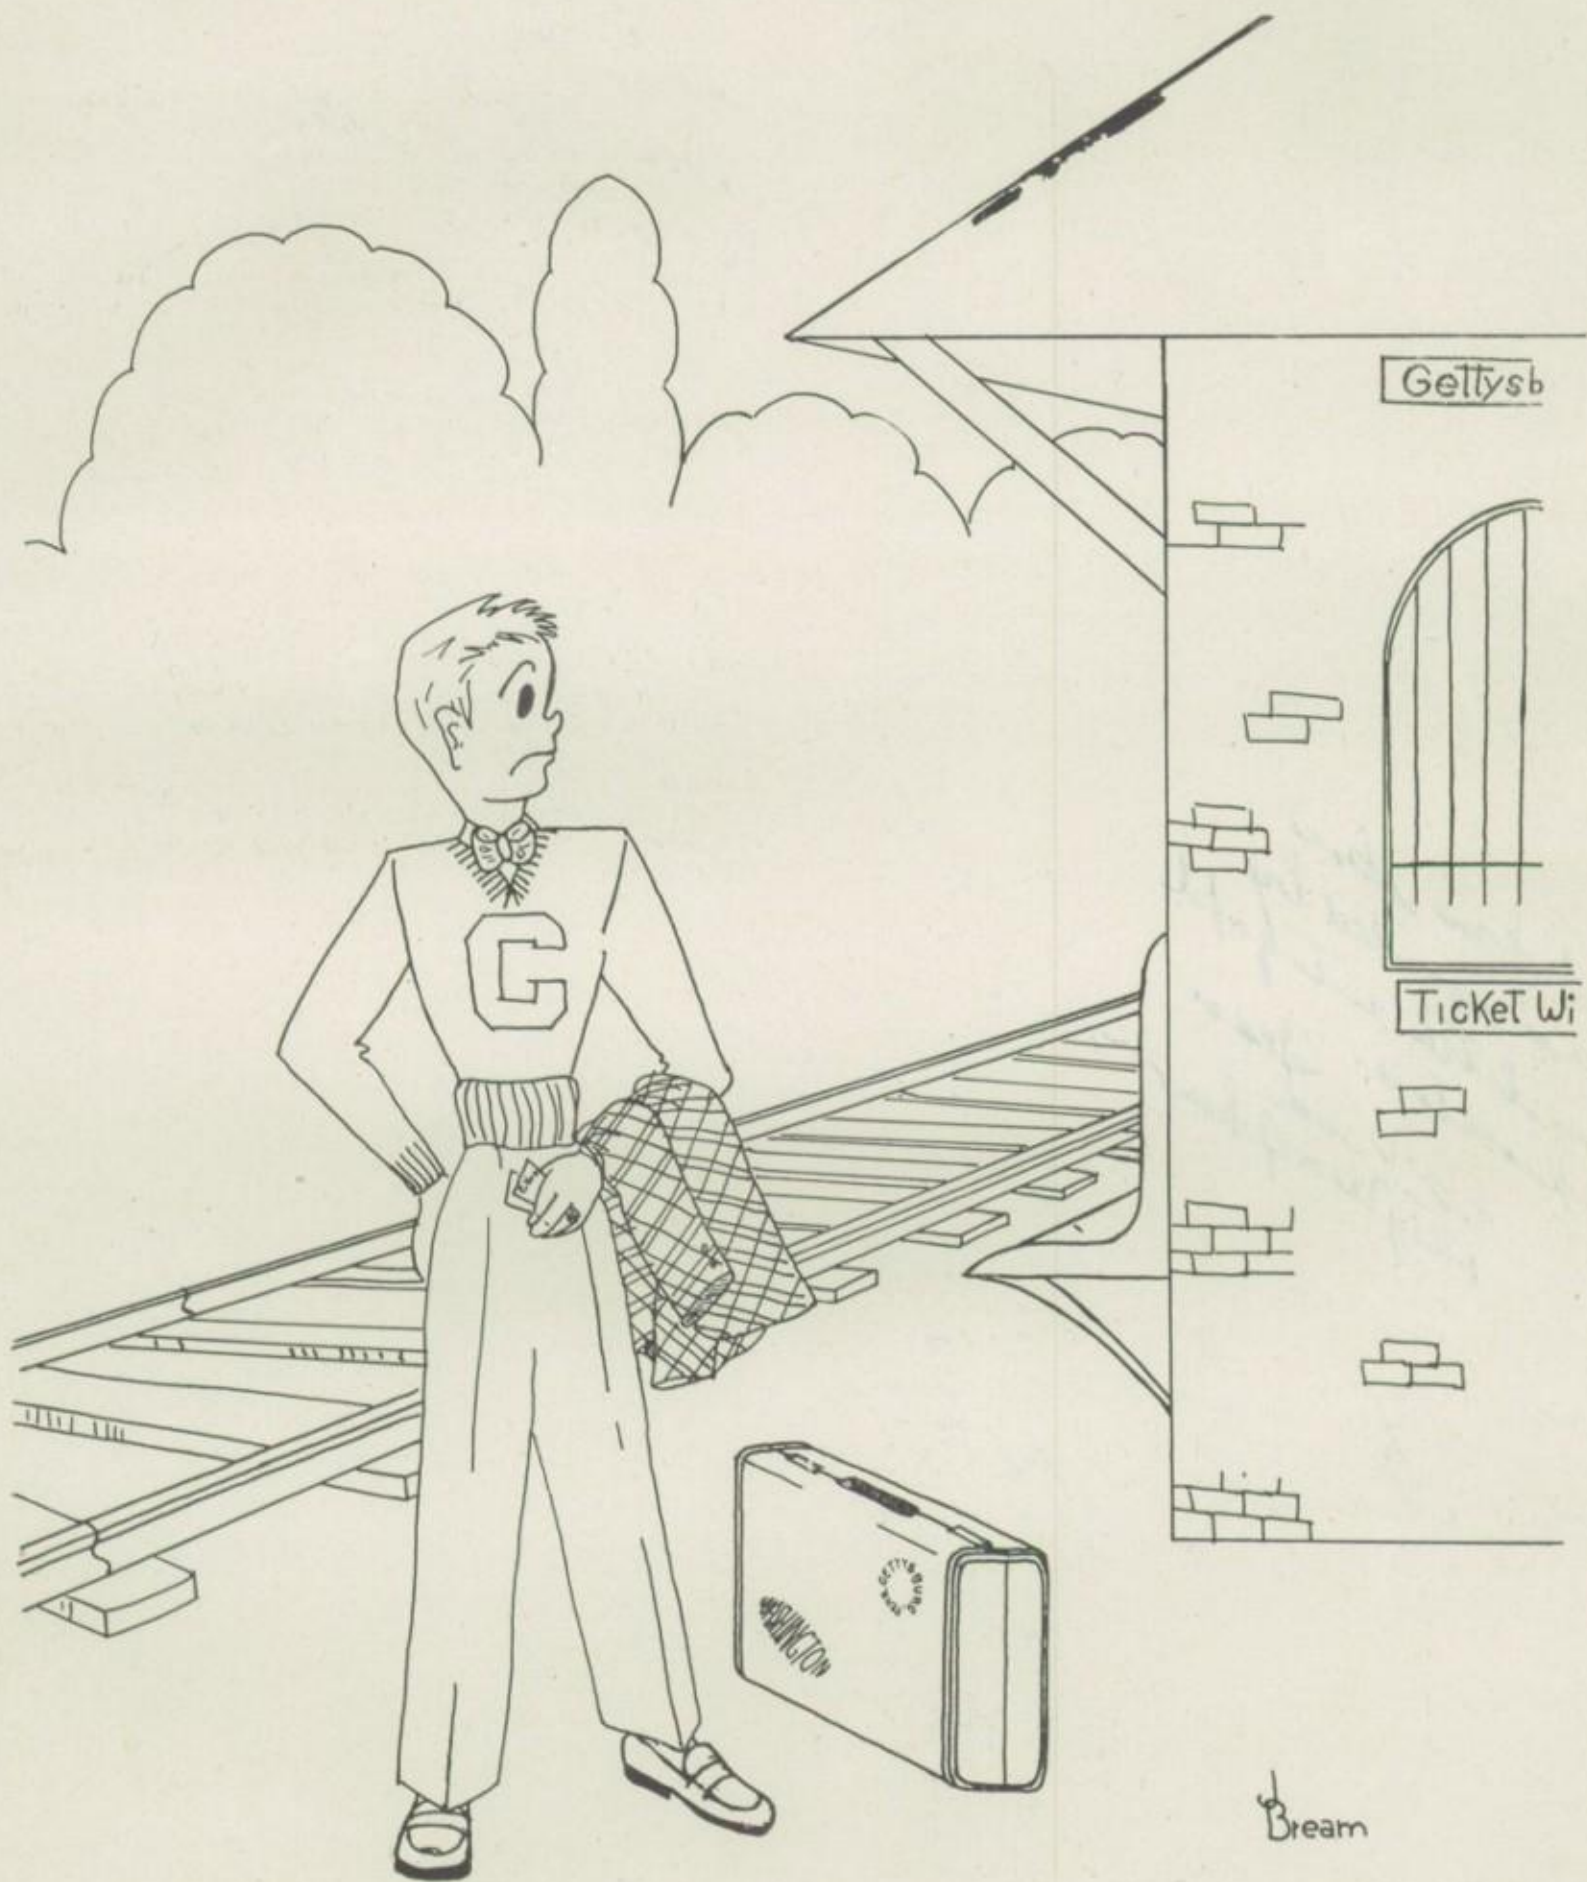

MARY HEINTZELMAN—Stuffs herself with pretzels all the time, couldn't mistake this for anyone else. "For cracking ice box cookies," just listen to that laugh, phooey to snootish people, you guessed it right, she wants to be a nurse.

LORRAINE HEMLER—"Whoserbutton" is only said by "Rainy," can't understand why anybody would want to show off or be an apple polisher, possesses tiny, wee laugh, also another girl in white (nurse).

MAYBELLE HERR—A lover of football games and movies, always shouting, "Oh! Darn," known by those blonde bangs, despises homework and catty people, thinks nursing would be swell and doctors simply fascinate her.

JAY HERSHEY—Can't get enough of pork chops and is partial to brunettes with personality plus, always telling people to, "Take it easy," attracts people with that blonde hair and blue baseball cap, doesn't appreciate snappy girls, here comes a lawyer.

JOSEPH HESS—Wonders why girls act better than they really are, thinks football and ice cream are out of this world, couldn't mistake him when he says, "Let's go, fellows," his tag is his curly hair, the future will find him a mason.

CASUAL COMMENTS

- DANIEL HOFFMAN—Thinks bangs are just oomph! Doesn't care for red hair, his tag D. Hoffman, Sec., very much interested in farming.
- JULIA HULL—Goes for CMPs in a big way, turns her nose up at "stuck-up kids," is forever saying, "Oh my golly," can be easily recognized by flowers and ribbons in her hair, plans to be a secretary.
- VIOLA JEFFCOAT—Simply devours pretzels, candy and ice cream, anklets with pumps sour on sight, always saying "Oh, girl," very often seen traveling with Treva Keefer, her future's undecided.
- RICHARD JOHNSON—Thinks beef steak is luscious, isn't well pleased with the high price of movies and shirts, yells "Suffer," can be seen on his bicycle (motor at last), future lies in U. S. Army.
- WINIFRED JONES—Loves men with short curly hair, hillbilly music and Buick convertibles, turns her back on two-faced people, likes to say, "Well, jeepers!" Easily identified by bangs and red-hot temper, has an undecided future.
- MAURICE KANE—Adores Jeannine, dancing and sleep, dislikes missing "lay up shots" in basketball. "My aching back." Answers to name of "Killer," his future is undecided.
- DORIS KARAS—Likes shrimp, chemistry, slacks and cats, dislikes hats, peanuts, rainy weather, always calling "Hi ya, Kid," often seen with Bette Lou and Pat, future is in medicine as an obstetrician.
- MARTHA KECKLER—Fond of dancing, thinks "stuck-up" people are awful, timidly says, "Oh, Gee," known by her quietness and Don, future lies in being a secretary.
- JOHN KEEFER—Thinks school is wonderful, but thinks homework is unnecessary, often says, "Oh, heck!" Identified by his quietness, hope for future is to be a teacher.
- JOYCE KEEFER—Swoons to "Stardust," despises tricky lines, is forever saying, "Hi, girl," tagged by that special guy named "Dick," desires to be a secretary.
- TREVA KEEFER—Thinks eating, dancing, maroon and blue are wonderful, casts a scornful glance on sarcastic people and those who "jump" to conclusions. "Are you sure, are you positive?" Identified by Freddie, Ann and Viola, greatest desire is to be a beautician.
- RUTH KEPNER—Lover of chocolate milk, cake, thinks wasps are hideous creatures, often heard remarking, "That's a laugh and a half," easily identified by expression of feelings on her face, wants to be a nurse.
- DORIS JEAN KITZMILLER—Thinks good music and travel are O.K., thinks rainy weather is just the opposite. "You like that, huh?" Answers to "Kitzie," future is a secretary.
- BARBARA KLINEFELTER—Likes swimming, dancing, singing, a certain someone's black wavy hair. The combination of blue and green, and C.T. tests in shorthand sour on thought. Forever saying, "Oh, my word," known by her radiant smile, future is secretarial work vs. marriage.
- MARY LOU KRANIAS—Says her mother's spaghetti, and Ernie's Hot Dogs are for her, casts a scornful glance on grouchy people, unconsciously says "Doggone it," answers to the name of Krank, greatest desire is to get married and settle down.
- JUNE KUMP—Swoons to Vaughn Monroe's "Fishing for the Moon" and dancing, turns her back to "show-offs," "Hey there," identified by Listerine smile and Joyce, future is to be a secretary.
- MARY LAZOS—Thinks French fries and coffee are delish, pumps with anklets are ridic, forever saying "Holy Beck," always seen with Deloris and Ida, desires to become a beautician.
- JAMES LEECH—Oh! those blue eyes, where John McKenrick goes, he goes, pet greeting is "Hello Buddy," dotes on French fries and waffles, likes women, despises conceited and bragging people.
- PAUL LINGG—"Bud," goes for good steaks, interested in sports, dancing, and sleeping, lucky, has no dislikes, heard saying "What you got in the box, Doc," hopes to be an accountant.
- DELORIS LITTLE—Known by her laugh, seen with Mary Lazos and Ida Redding, pet reply is "Well, I don't know," prefers coffee and shoestrings after school, dislikes tall girls with short boys, the future is indefinite.
- MARTHA MARTIN—Crazy about white cats and Greyhound buses, hates people who are always pushing, wonders who invented homework, says "Oh! My!" Always wears white socks and a friendly smile, wants to be an elementary teacher.
- JOHN MCKENRICK—Seen with Jim Leech, dislikes show-offs and braggarts, big interest is sports, always saying "I flubbed up," the service is his future.
- PHYLLIS MENCHEY—Recognized by her giggle, has a fancy for Indians (anytime, anywhere), simply hates Sen Sens, heard saying "Lo-o-ve it!" Also expects to be an elementary teacher.
- BETTY MILLER—"Half hour," frequently remarks "My Cow!" Loves music and bicycling, abhors braggarts, the future is undecided.
- EVELYN MILLER—Likes to sleep and listen to the radio, passion for sports and driving, detests show-offs and public speaking, seen with Geraldine Shetter and Janice Rebert, hopes to be a beautician or secretary.
- JACK MOSER—Known as Doedoe, likes his girl, wants a longer lunch period, can be heard saying "My aching back," it's the Army for him.
- HARRY MYERS—Always has shiny shoes, heard saying "Wise up," detests studying, likes sports, some girls, and trapping, expects to be a mechanic.
- ANN RAFFENSPERGER—Wears a certain I.D. bracelet, seen with Treva Keefer, likes to eat, dislikes people exaggerating true facts, pet greeting, "Hi, girl," a prospective kindergarten teacher.
- MADELINE RAFFENSPERGER—Known by her pigeon-toed walk, exclaims about everything with "Ye! Gracious!" Big moment is sports, detests show-offs and braggarts, wishes for a secretarial position.
- JANE RAMER—Known by her legs (the shape of them), pet saying is "Holy Cow," just loves hamburgers 'n milkshakes, dislikes people who are never on time, expects to be a laboratory technician.
- JANICE REBERT—Identified with Evelyn Miller, "My Word!" Wonders who invented eating herring fish, detests braggarts, enjoys dancing, eating, driving, and sleeping, a future secretary.
- IDA REDDING—Seen with Deloris Little and Mary Lazos, pet saying is "Holy Cow!" Likes '46 Pontiacs (wonder why?), dancing is her speed, also goes for black dresses and long hair, thinks jealousy is terrible, doesn't like yellow and red combinations, dislikes arguing, a future beautician.
- FLOYD REYNOLDS—Recognized by a camouflage jacket and saying "Holy Mackerel," prefers sociable people, can always eat fried chicken, mashed potatoes with gravy and Cake, thinks girls who smoke are ridiculous, one of those future farmers.

CASUAL COMMENTS

MADLINE RHODES—Chief likes are adventure, sports, dates (edible) and people, becomes disgusted with scratchy fountain-pens, two-faced people, homework, and spinach, if you hear the word "Shucks" Madeline will be the speaker, Avon Grove class ring identifies her, here's a future secretary or old maid school teacher.

ALMA RINEHART—Loves traveling and basketball, shrinks from show-offs and gossip people, pet saying is "Honest to Pete," deep sighs tell her tale, she sees nursing in her future.

JIM ROBERTS—Jim tries to adapt himself to the surroundings, likes almost everything, known by the name "Bolo," his future is still undecided.

CHARLIE RODGERS—Has a deep passion for athletics and chocolate cake, turns thumbs down on girls wearing high heels, "Tain't easy" is his pet saying, Peggy Ann will lead you to Charlie, teaching is in his future.

FRED RODGERS—Centers his attention on dancing, athletics, devil's food cake, and music, shuns burned potato soup, identified by his twin brother, hopes to become a civil engineer.

LUTHER SACHS—Wild about sports and eating, loathes Lebanon bologna, Switzer cheese, "What's your trouble bubble," discharge button, hopes are high for junior business executive.

JUNE SANDERS—Pet pastime, movies, snubs people who act sophisticated, "My Lause," easily known by "freckles," future housewife or secretary.

MARY LOUISE SANDERS—Can't do without eating, talking and L.S.H., never seen working hard, "Well, my word," slim and talkative, a future beautician.

DOROTHY SCOTT—Always seen with Raff (hurrying). Oh those ice skates, dislikes snakes and olives, "Well, I'll be switched," another secretary.

NANCY SHANE BROOK—Glasses and clarinet, could listen to radio continuously, dislikes practicing piano, "Character," Spanish translator.

LINDY SHANOLTZ—If you hear a roaring motorcycle, it's Lindy, against women drivers, always recognized by turtle-neck sweater, it's going to be the Merchant Marines for this boy.

WILMER SHARRAH—Beautiful maroon shirt, thinks nothing can compare with football, dislikes stuck-up people, future undecided.

DALE SHEFFER—"Porky," his passion, chicken, ice cream and sports, could murder noisy people, "Sticks and stones will break my bones, but words will never hurt me," future clerk.

GERALDINE SHETTER—Adores polite boys, seen tagging after Evelyn Miller, despises turnips. Ah! Gorsh! Beautician.

GLADYS SHRIVER—Blond hair and Judy, loves all kinds of food, high-hatted people are a dislike, undecided future.

RUTH SHUPE—Our black haired Southern gal, English is her favorite, while chemistry bores her, "My golly!" heads this lady's pet expressions, another "Nightingale."

CATHARINE SMALL—A Sweetland fan, dotes on cokes and shoe-strings, shadowed by "Toots" and Carol, Beech-Nut gum gorges "Cacky," but "Rudy" adores her, future beautician.

LOIS SMALL—Loves Al, dislikes boys who gossip (that's for girls, too), always says "Holy Mud," travels with Cacky or Carol, a future secretary.

PEGGY ANN SMITH—Simply adores dancing, "Stardust," snow, and "CHARLIE," detests gossipers and show-offs, always declaring, "It's a little ditty," seen with Carlitos, fancies being a secretary.

PHILIMINE SMITH—Thinks movies and ice skating are swell, turns her nose up at sweet potatoes, "Holy Cow," known for talking a great deal, desires to become a beautician.

JOHN SNYDER—Likes anything mechanical, thinks the half-hour lunch hour is ridiculous, forever asking, "You like that, huh?" Always seen with a vehicle that's different, hopes to be an engineer.

JEANNINE STAMBAUGH—Fancies dancing, and sleep, turns her back to boastful people, favorite expression is "Holy Cow!" Known by her changeable eyes, beautician.

ROXEY STAMBAUGH—Adores tall men, dancing, turns her nose up at steamed cabbage and two-faced people, always says, "No!" Known by her shortness, future is a laboratory technician and housewife.

TOM STEINBERGER—Loves all kinds of sweets, despises "show-offs" and teachers' pets, usually found discussing sports, future lies in teaching history.

DONALD STERNER—Thinks pie, cake, and sports are 'swonderful, dislikes girls (oh yeah) and cowboy'n in cars, "How can you tell," known by '41 green Chevrolet, small blue cap and answers to name of "Pickle," desirous of becoming a flyer.

MARIE STERNER—Fond of bowling, potato chips and strawberry sundaes, turns her back to people who act sophisticated, always remarking, "My Golly," identified by solemnity, future's a beautician.

ANN LOUISE STOCK—Fancies mid-nite snacks and rainy weather, people with unpolished shoes, plaid skirts and reindeer sweaters are displeasing, always remarking, "Everything's in an uproar," tagged her lucky number "13," desirous of obtaining a clerical position with the air lines.

WILLIAM STRALEY—Adores girls, eating and taking trips, thinks girls' smoking is quite unladylike, always says, "Holy Smokes!" Identified by brown wavy hair and pencil behind ear, has an undecided future.

RAE STROHM—Concentrates on her steady, dancing, and yellow, thinks cabbage is horrible, always saying "Isn't that dear," a college freshman is her joy, the crystal ball says "Angel of Mercy."

DORIS TAUGHINBAUGH—Thinks of nothing but good food, and Tabu perfume. People who try to show-off are out, "Oh's for Pete's sake," a big laugh and a smile tag her, a beautician for the future.

WILLIAM TIPTON—Fishing and chocolate cake are tops, teacher's pets are definitely out, "Suffer and Misery" is a pet saying, "Tippy" identifies him, a future lawyer.

JAYNE TONSEL—Loves tailored clothes, mother's fried chicken, Alan Ladd, good records, dislikes conceited boys, two-faced girls, a pair of golden earrings dangle, a language teacher is next.

WALTER TROSTLE—Wine, women and song suit him. Goody-goody boys and stuck-up girls are off the list, always says "Can't say it," seen in a '38 Ford, future is flying.

BETTY WENSCHHOF—Craves ice cream, hiking, potato chips, parsnips, speed tests in typing are definitely out, wants to be commercial teacher and perhaps a housewife.

IT'S ALL IN YOUR HEAD

Mrs. Prescott	Ruth Jeanne Diehl
Mr. Prescott	William Tipton
Melissa	Arlene Lewis
Mitch	Robert Shealer
Isabelle	Patricia Sponsler
Enoch Twitchell	William Meals
Anna Lucasky	Mary Kay Baughman
Peter Wesley	Galen Keeney
Gurney Shaw	William McKenney
Belle Lamont	Jane Ramer
Sally Cramer	Caroline Bollinger

The Prescotts inherit an ancient house which is supposedly haunted by a ghost. As soon as they settle themselves in their new home mysterious happenings take place. Melissa and Mitch try to solve the problem with the help of Peter. Enoch Twitchell, a cranky old man, tries to scare them all from the house. The Prescotts finally discover, through a very interesting trick, that Mr. Twitchell is not what he pretends to be and the mystery is soon solved.

A CASE OF SPRINGTIME

Bob Parker	John Donmoyer
Louella, maid	Mary Lou Kranias
	Mary Heintzelman
Eddie Abernacker	Donald Bucher
Mr. Parker	William Tipton
Mr. Abernacker, principal	Floyd Reynolds
Mrs. Brunswick of P.T.A.	Ann Raffensperger
Mrs. James of P.T.A.	Treva Keefer
Mrs. Hill of P.T.A.	Roxey Stambaugh
	Nancy Shanebrook
Miss Bright	Harriet Armistead
	Doris Karas
Mrs. Parker	Barbara Klinefelter
Betty Parker	Ann Louise Stock
Dickie Parker	Robert Moser
Gwen Anderson	Arlene Lewis
Joan Abernacker	Rae Strohm
Detective	Luther Sachs
	William Straley

It's all about the hilarious but sympathetic troubles that come down on Bob, a high school senior, when he falls for Joan, who can't help it that she's the principal's daughter—and then she decides to throw him over for a "college man"! There is some trouble with the P.T.A. ladies when they walk into booby traps set up by Bob's younger brother. Events take a sudden and delightful turn and the play ends with Bob on the top of the world.

MIRIAM KEENEY,
1946 CANNON-AID NEWS
EDITOR, PRESENTS TO GENERAL DWIGHT D.
EISENHOWER
COPY OF
1946 CANNON-AID

When General Eisenhower came to Gettysburg on May 27, 1946, to be the commencement speaker, he was the recipient of a copy of the 1946 Cannon-Aid, which carried a photograph of the famous five-star general.

Through the courtesy of Gettysburg College's president, Doctor Henry W. A. Hanson, the opportunity was given to several 1946 graduates to present their annual and to photograph the occasion.

mean mean with mine
I'll think & be a hell of a swell
in your Luck
